

April, 2010 Newsletter

Agent's Wines & Walkabout, The Faculty Club, May 11, 2010

The Australian Wine Society and Toronto Wine Agents invite you to uncork and sample a wide range of Australian wines not available on LCBO store shelves. Come and discover some old favourites and some new gems, for both long term and short term cellaring. This mini wine fair, provides an opportunity to meet at least 16 Agents in person, taste their wines, and place an order for your personal consumption.

The evening starts promptly at 6:00 p.m. and closes at 9:00 p.m. The Faculty Club will provide a fine table of finger food, so you'll not go hungry. We provide a tasting booklet, so bring your pen and your palate.

If you have not joined us at this venue, the Faculty Club is at 41 Willcocks Street, Toronto, 416-978-6325, one block south of Harbord, and east of Spadina Avenue.

Members Price for this evening $40.00, Guests $45.00.

You can register on-line at <http://agentsnight2010.eventbrite.com> or mail the attached Registration Form.

Future Events

The Summer Solstice Dinner, June 22, 2010.

Once again we are celebrating the 2010 "Midsummers Day" at the Boulevard Club on Toronto's waterfront. John Macdonald will select the wine, the Executive Chef will line up a wonderful dinner to complement the wines. We meet at 6:30 on the deck, overlooking Lake Ontario, for bubbies and munchies, the inside in the Solarium for a full four course dinner with wines, and if we're lucky, possibly a "sticky" with dessert.

Elderton Barossa Valley Wines, April 6

The tasting relaxingly led by Alex Patinios, the Ontario agent for Elderton, showed all eight wines still had many years to go to maturity and gave those attending an insight to the long range potential of these wines.
